

invites singers in Waynesboro and surrounding areas to audition for the 2023-24 season

Rehearsals begin on September 12th and are held every Tuesday from 7-9pm at First Baptist Church

301 South Wayne ❖ Waynesboro, Virginia

Singers must at least be in high school in order to audition

Meet Our

NEW ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

To schedule an audition, contact Adam Phillips at adamcraigphillips@gmail.com

For more information about Schola Cantorum, visit scholawaynesboro.org

Adam Phillips, tenor, is a native of Waynesboro. He received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, NJ. Adam has numerous years of experience as a singer and teacher. He has performed in various opera productions, singing the roles of Tito in Mozart's La Clemenza di Tito and Count Almaviva in Rossini's Il Barbiere di Siviglia. He continues to sing in a variety of choral ensembles as well. He is the founder and artistic director of the Shenandoah Valley Vocal Institute. Adam is passionate about teaching singers of all ages and enjoys teaching group vocal technique as well as private voice study. Adam is currently the Director of Music at First Baptist Church in Waynesboro.